

User Progress

The User Progress tool helps students track their progress in a course by measuring their completion of 9 different progress indicators. Instructors can also use the User Progress tool to track students' overall progress and prepare progress reports, while students can use User Progress to keep track of all of their course-specific assignments and feedback. Progress reports are available for the following progress indicators:

- Grades
- Objectives
- Content
- Discussions
- Dropbox Folders
- Quizzes
- Checklist
- Surveys
- Login History

Accessing the User Progress

1. From within the course, click the drop arrow next to your name
2. Select Progress.

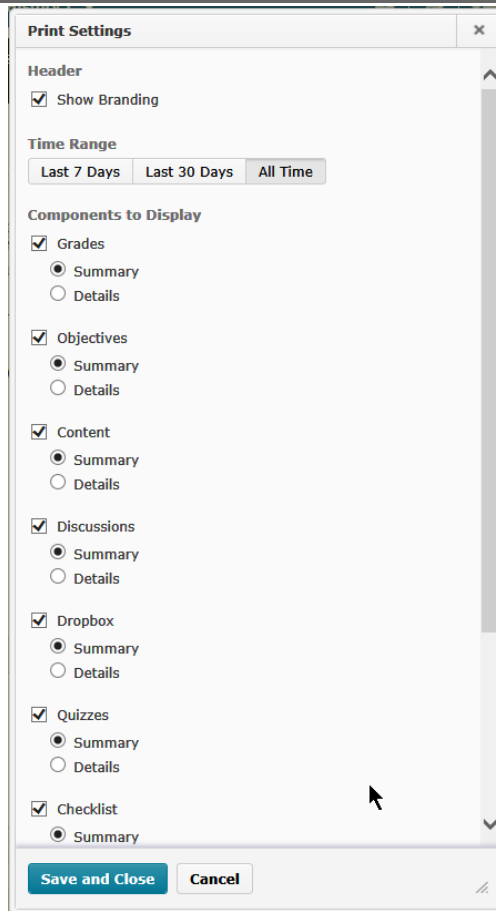

Select Summary or Individual Items

Select an item on the left menu bar.

Some items can be expanded to see more details.

A screenshot of the "Content Progress" page for "Survey of US History I". The page shows a summary of progress for various units. On the left, there is a navigation menu with items: "Summary", "Grades", "Objectives", "Content", "Discussions", "Dropbox", "Quizzes", "Checklist", "Surveys", and "Login History". The "Content" item is highlighted with a blue bar and a red circle with the number "1". A red box labeled "Select an Item" is positioned over the "Grades" item. The main content area shows progress bars for each unit. The first unit, "UNIT 1: FAILED RECONSTRUCTION AND THE RISE OF FACTORIES", has a progress bar at 71% and is annotated with a red circle "2" and a red box labeled "Progress is listed here." Below it, a red box labeled "Expand to see sub categories" has a red arrow pointing to the "7 Topics, 0 Modules" link. Other units shown include "UNIT 2: IMPERIALISM, PROGRESSIVISM, AND WORLD WAR I" (0% completed), "UNIT 3: ROARING TWENTIES, THE GREAT DEPRESSION, AND THE NEW DEAL" (0% completed), and "UNIT 4: WORLD WAR II, START OF THE COLD WAR, AND" (0% completed). The page also includes a header with the user's name "Kirk, Tiberius" and a "Print" button.

You can print your summary, item results, or select the settings options to select or deselect specific items.
